

Table 1. Projects relating to higher education as funded in the 2019 round of grants by the Native American Agriculture Fund.

Project (State)	Amount	Brief description of project as provided on NAAF website
American Indian College Fund (Colorado)	$273,370	Provide stipends for place-based, agriculture-focused career experiences.
American Indian Graduate Center (New Mexico)	$150,000	Scholarships through Wilson Hooper Veterinary Medicine Assistance Program and host two "Know Before U Go" workshop for Native high school students interested in agricultural degrees.
American Indian Higher Education Consortium (Virginia)	$125,000	Sponsor TCUs in delivering technical assistance to agricultural producers through trained AmeriCorps VISTA volunteers.
Board of Regents, University of Nevada-Reno (Nevada)	$483,470	Coordinate advanced agricultural business training for Native producers, sponsor scholarships and mentoring for students pursuing agriculture, and support youth participation in agricultural camps.
Cankdeska Cikana Community College (North Dakota)	$74,838	Irrigate college community garden, cultivate an additional field for traditional corn, and increase engagement with Head Start students.
Cherokee Nation Foundation (Oklahoma)	$50,000	Sponsor academic scholarships for 25 Cherokee Nation students pursuing agricultural degrees.
College of Menominee Nation (Wisconsin)	$211,443	Gather input on and provide scholarships for a new sustainable agriculture degree, conduct a hemp feasibility study and introduce students to aquaponics.
Diné College (New Mexico)	$155,800	Expand Diné Bichyaa Summit programming, sponsor youth participation in agricultural camps and award scholarships for agricultural degree program.
Murray State College (Oklahoma)	$75,000	Launch a new course on agricultural financial literacy and provide scholarships to Native students in agriculture degree programs.
Northeastern State University, Center for Tribal Affairs (Oklahoma)	$69,699	Pilot two workshops and an intensive residential seminar to provide training in restorative agriculture through permaculture design, emphasizing traditional and indigenous practices.
Oklahoma State University Foundation (Oklahoma)	$50,000	Incentivize Native agricultural students to expand their knowledge of commodity futures markets, financial futures and options markets through targeted scholarships.
Oregon State University (Oregon)	$24,433	Facilitate a youth agricultural council focused on tribal agriculture, leadership development and policy creation.

Pawnee Nation College (Oklahoma)	$203,563	Provide scholarships to Native agricultural students, organize Master Gardener classes and conduct a hemp manufacturing research and analysis program.
Robeson Community College (North Carolina)	$136,778	Offer scholarships to students interested in agriculture careers and provide continuing education classes for farmers, ranchers and growers looking to promote their businesses.
University of North Carolina at Pembroke (North Carolina)	$125,000	Increase education for Native producers, study industrial hemp production, and develop a summer outreach program for youth exploring careers in farming and agribusiness.
Utah State University (Utah)	$57,628	Help students learn about educational options in agriculture and develop agricultural career plans while increasing the number of Native college students overall.
Washington State University (Washington)	$100,000	Develop community demonstration gardens, teach food safety certification classes and invest in the 4-H program to increase youth interest in agriculture.
Total	$2,366,022	